RE: UNITY

WHEREAS, the Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs was formed in 1988 to work cooperatively on common goals; and

WHEREAS, the Chiefs of Manitoba have the duty to protect the Treaty Rights of First Nation peoples in Manitoba; and

WHEREAS, there are many outstanding issues that need to be resolved such as housing, education, health, unemployment, economic development, social services and justice; and

WHEREAS, it is prudent that the Chiefs of Manitoba through the Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs work together in unity to promote the interests of First Nations peoples in Manitoba.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs reaffirm the goals of unity in the A.M.C. Constitution and reaffirm their commitment to work in unity to further the interests of First Nation peoples in Manitoba.
